Born and raised in Vancouver, Dennis Miller has been Principal Tubist of the Vancouver Symphony, the Houston Symphony, and now l'Orchestre symphonique de Montréal which he joined in 1989. He has given solo recitals and performed concertos with orchestras and bands in both Canada and the USA. He has had several pieces written for him and has given premiere performances of works by such composers as Harry Freedman, Ian McDougall, Alec Wilder and Howard Bashaw. Mr Miller is also Assistant Professor of Music at McGill University, where he teaches tuba and brass techniques and conducts the McGill University Brass Choir.

Janet Scott Hoyt is widely known as a pianist, teacher and adjudicator. Her university studies were completed at the University of Alberta. Further studies were done in Europe with Cecile Genhart and at The Banff Centre with Gyorgy Sebok and Menachem Pressler. Since 1973, she has been a member of the music faculty at The Banff Centre, and in 1995, was nominated to lead the Collaborative Pianists Faculty there. Through her long association with The Banff Arts Festival, she has performed with many artists of international reputation and with students from around the world. She was named to the piano faculty of the Department of Music at the University of Alberta in 1998.

Lucky Winner!

Congratulations to our lucky winner, Mrs Alma Kabush, who entered our draw at the last Faculty & Friends concert and has won the latest CD recording from cellist Tanya Prochazka and pianist Janet Scott Hoyt
